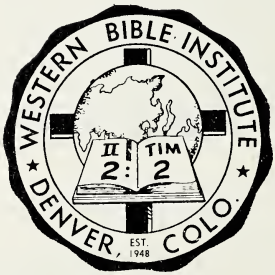
"LIVES AGLOW"

And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

II Timothy 2:2



"In God's appointed course for you, it may be that today was to have been the greatest day of your life; yet you would let it slip as if it were any other day. The man whose today is like his yesterday lacks a sense of God's timings. No servant of the Lord should be content with present attainment; for to be satisfied with what is, is to be a loser of opportunities.

Let us suppose that (today) the Lord puts it into my heart to go and seek out a certain person who, in His providence, is destined to become five years hence a mighty instrument in His hands for the salvation of souls, to obey may be the greatest single act of service in my life. But suppose on this day I am afraid of the cold, or something equally trivial, and do not go. I have let slip an opportunity, and perhaps lost thereby a powerful instrument for God. And the trouble is, such occasions do not wait for us, they pass swiftly by. So when God moves, let us move with Him. No divinely sent opportunity must elude us."

—Watchman Nee

"Redeeming the time" or Buying up the Opportunity
Because the days are evil"
Ephesians 5:16

Dear Students:

I write this letter of introduction to our 1967 annual, Lives Aglow, with a prayer in my heart.

I pray that we who are identified with Western Bible Institute, students, staff and faculty, alike, will be characterized by genuine love for the Lord Jesus. May it be that we truly give Him place in our lives. May our manner of life manifest the Obedience to which our lips give witness. May our witness be in all fidelity, and may we come to know increasingly His Lordship in our lives.

And above all, may the God of all glory be pleased in His grace to thrust each of us into that arena of service whereby He can garner to the Lord Jesus the most glory.
